LESSON 1 Date: _____; Team: _____

- Scripture: Genesis 21:1-7
- Main Theme: Nothing is too Hard for God
- New Visual Aid: Baby Isaac, 3N1
- Review: The Three Visitors, Lot's Wife Turned to Salt (2N18 to 2N19) (These are the last two visuals in Book 2; use them for a quick review. If you have not used Books 1 and 2, you might want to get copies and teach the stories of Creation to Abraham before starting the stories in Book 3. If you are not planning to teach Books 1 and 2, then you will not need to review the lessons from Books 1 and 2.)
- Story: The Birth of Isaac
- Application: When Isaac was born, Abraham was 100 years old and Sarah was 91 years old. The only way for them to have had a baby was by God's doing. It was a miracle. If the baby had been born when they were young, it would not have been so special. God is never late. His timing in the birth of Isaac was perfect; His timing in your life is also perfect. Remember what the angel said to them earlier: "Nothing is too hard for the Lord." Well, it is true. Nothing was too hard for God in Abraham's life, and nothing is too hard for God in your life.
- New Bible Verse, 3N23: Hebrews 13:5 (Continue to review all the verses from Books 1 and 2: Genesis 1:31, Romans 3:23, Romans 6:23, John 3:16, Hebrews 9:22)

LESSON 2    Date: _____ ; Team: _____

- Scripture: Genesis 21:8-20
  - Main Theme: God's Timing is Always Perfect
  - New Visual Aid: Hagar and Ishmael Leave, 3N2
  - Review: The Birth of Isaac (3N1)
  - Story: Hagar and Ishmael
  - Application: This is a wonderful story of God's love and provision. God helped Hagar just when she needed encouraging. He knows just when you have a problem and a need and He sees how to help you (Psalm 46:1; Isaiah 41:10; Hebrews 13:5). The neat thing is that He does it at just the perfect time. He is never early and He is never late. God spoke to Hagar just when she had given up and was ready to die. God did not talk to her any sooner and He did not wait until it was too late; He was right on time. God is the same way today. He sees you no matter where you are. He sees you no matter what you are doing. He sees you and He knows you and He desires to help you. God loves you very much. He is in control of your life and His timing will always be perfect.
